

AMBASSADOR JOSEPH JOHN JOVA

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in New York State
Dartmouth College
United Fruit Company – Guatemala
U.S. Navy, World War II; Liaison with French Navy, Bordeaux
Entered the Foreign Service in 1947

Basra, Iraq 1947-1949

Consular Officer
Petroleum reporting
Arab-Israeli War, 1948
Marriage
Relations with Iraqis
British influence

Tangier, Morocco 1949-1952

Economic/Political Officer
U. S. facilities
Pact of Algerciras
Relations with the French
Committee of Control
Local Environment
Minister John Carter Vincent
McCarthyism

Porto, Portugal 1952-1954

Consular Officer
Ambassador Robert Guggenheim

Lisbon, Portugal 1954-1957

Head of Political Section
Renewal of Azores base agreement
U.S. interests
Goa dispute
Salazar
USIA

EUR, French, Iberian Affairs 1957-1959

North African independence movements
De Gaulle

Personnel	1959-1961
Major Problems
GLOP
Women in the Foreign Service
Missions in African nations
Santiago, Chile	1961-1965
Deputy Chief of Mission
Political situation
Ambassador Charles W. Cole
Frei vs Allende
Anti-Americanism
Concern over Allende
Adlai Stevenson mission
Ambassador Ralph Dungan
Ambassador Edward Korry
Cuban influence
Tegucigalpa, Honduras	1965-1969
Ambassador
U.S. policy and interests
Embassy staffing
Dealing with host government
United Fruit Company
Cuban relation
Organization of American States	1969-1973
Ambassador
San Salvador – Honduras war
U.S. influence in OAS
Mexican role in OAS
Anti-Americanism in OAS
Fishing rights and 10 mile limit
Rockefeller mission to Latin America
President Johnson visit to Honduras
Duties as ambassador
Ellsworth Bunker
Cuba issue
Mexican role
Allende overthrow
Mexico City, Mexico	1973-1977
Ambassador
Drug problem
President Echeverria anti-U. S oratory
Working with the Mexican government

Mexico's Foreign Service

Embassy operations

USIA

DEA

Illegal immigration

Ruling party in Mexico

Corruption

PAM, opposition party

How to get along with Mexican officials

Closing U.S. Consulates

Mexican views of Nixon

Mexican military

Cuba