

DAGMAR KANE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Early Foreign Service
Living in Prague	1930-1940
Marriage (1936)
Washington
World War II
Wives' course
Language training
London	1945
Prague	1945-1948
Piedras Negras, Mexico	1948-1951
Caracas, Venezuela	1951
Effects of the Foreign Service
Separation from some of husband's postings
Children, schools, their role in the Foreign Service
Representation responsibilities
Wife's role, pride in being American citizen
Life in the Foreign Service
Trip to Europe via Atlantic with children
Household staff
Social and cultural activities
Personal finances and expenses
Responsibilities of wife and mother
Foreign Service as a partnership
Nazis occupy Prague (1940), dangers, evacuation
Role as Foreign Service wife, today's attitudes
Political ambassadors' wives
After Husband's Death
Begins writing
Joins AAFSW Writers' Group, anthology published
Writing memoirs, history of family and of Moravia	