

JOHN H. KEAN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Early years and education

Work on international trade

Move to the State Department and the Mutual Security Agency

Interagency committee on the French economy

Move to the Foreign Operations Administration as economist for South Asia

Officer in Charge of Israeli Affairs

Turkey: first overseas assignment

Return to Washington: Officer in Charge of Egypt and Syria(UAR), Sudan

Assignment in Egypt 1961-1964

Development programs in Jordan

U.S. assistance to Afghanistan: on the frontlines of the cold war

Assignment in Washington:

Special Assistant to the Assistant Administrator, Near East and South Asia

Program Officer for the Technical Assistance Bureau

Assistant Director for Program in USAID Ghana

Assignment as Regional Development Officer for Southern Africa:

A time of rapid program expansion in Botswana, Lesotho, and Swaziland

The U.S. foreign assistance program in retrospect