

AMBASSADOR ROBERT V. KEELEY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Son of U.S. diplomat
Born in Beirut
Educated primarily abroad
Princeton University
U.S. Coast Guard
Entered Foreign Service	1956
International Cooperation Agency (ICA)	1956-1958
FSI training
Amman, Jordan	1958-1960
Political officer
Troubles of 1958
Local environment
Baath Party
King Hussein
U.S. aid to Jordan
Bamako, Mali	1958-1963
Local environment
French Sensitivities
U.S. military training
U.S. Soviet rivalry
Ambassador William Handley
Soviet diplomatic mission
Relations with government
AF (Central African Affairs)	1963-1965
Congo – Leopoldville
Chinese defection in Bujumbura
Congo-Brazzaville embassy closed
G. Mennen Williams
U.S. policy towards Africa
African votes in UN
Andrew Young and Mugabe
Zimbabwe
AF and EUR friction over Africa
Economic studies
Stanford University	1965-1966

National Institute of Public Affairs
Economic Studies

Athens, Greece	1966-1970
Political officer
1967 Coup d'etat – Embassy divided
Advice to King of Greece
Predicting the “generals” coup
Andreas and Margaret Papandreou
The “colonels” coup
Greek government under the “colonels”
CIA
The “King’s” coup
Cyprus
Cyrus Vance
Princeton University	1970
Uganda, Kampala	1971-1973
Deputy Chief of Mission
Ambassador Clarence C. Ferguson
Idi Amin
U.S. interests
Obote
British legacy in Uganda
Ben Kiwanuka
Peace Corps
Evacuation
Idi Amin’s reaction to Noel and Moore murders in Sudan
To close or not to close embassy
Americans murdered
AF (East African Affairs)
Ethiopian situation
U.S. interests in Ethiopia
Phnom Penh, Cambodia	1975-1976
Deputy Chief of Mission
Ambassador John Gunther Dean
Security simulation
Relation to Vietnam War
Embassy operations
Congressional visits
War in Cambodia
Khmer Rouge
Kissinger

Prince Silhanouk Lon Nol Evacuation Cabled instructions confusion Dealing with the press
Indochina Refugee Task Force Vietnam evacuation Resettlement of refugees Refugees in Guam	1976
Mauritius Ambassador Diego Garcia Local environment	1976-1978
AF Deputy Assistant Secretary Rhodesia ZANU-ZAPU Colonial legacies U.S. sanctions on Rhodesia Namibia Human rights Zimbabwe	1978-1980
Harare, Zimbabwe Ambassador Local environment Mugabe Mugabe's state visit Ian Smith "One-party system"	1980-1984
Center for the Study of Foreign Affairs (FSI) AFSA president
Athens, Greece Ambassador U.S. Greek relations U.S. interests Papandreou U.S. military relations Melina Mercouri Arms sales Greek "lobby"	1985-1989

Greek-Turkish relations
Communists and USSR