

RANDOLPH A. KIDDER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Harvard
Family background
Foreign Service exam
Montreal	1938-1939
Vice Consul
Initial impressions of the Foreign Service
Situation in Montreal
Foreign Service training class
Start of World War II
Sydney	1940-1941
Situation in Australia
Visa work
Nature of post
Canberra, Australia	1941-1944
Nature of post
U.S. Brazilian relations
Belem, Brazil	1944-1946
Consul
Nature of assignment
Relations with military base
Brazil during World War II
Rio de Janeiro	1946-1952
Political officer
Situation in Brazil
Brazilian focus on Europe
Evaluation of ambassadors
Relations with Foreign Office
Evaluation of the Brazilian Foreign Service
Washington	1949-1952
Officer in charge of Brazilian affairs
U.S. view of Brazil
National War College	1952-1955
Saigon, Phnom Penh, and Vientiane	1953-1955

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Political reporting Situation in Indo-China U.S. military in Southeast Asia Dealing with the Vietnamese Ngo Dinh Diem U.S. policy goals in Southeast Asia Impressions of Sihanouk Cambodia Embassy view Appointment as Ambassador to Cambodia Expulsion from Cambodia
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Washington Coordinator of Senior Seminar Liaison work Retirement 	1965-1968
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Washington Coordinator of Senior Seminar Liaison work Retirement 	1965-1968
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Director of European Office of Institute of International Education (Paris) Situation in France Student Riots in late 1960's
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Conclusion Foreign Service Inspection Corps The Foreign Service as a career
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Saigon Chargé d'Affaires Debate over supporting Diem Dispute with French over Diem 	1955