

AMBASSADOR ANDREW I. KILLGORE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Childhood
Early career
Foreign Service exam and Wriston program
Office of Security
Joe McCarthy
Sino-Soviet relations
Attitude towards Arabists
Jordan	1957-1961
Duties as political officer
Political situation on West Bank
Problems with objectivity as an Arabists
Jordanian attitude towards Palestinians
King Hussein
U.S. – Jordanian relations
Desk Officer	1961-1965
Duties and responsibilities as desk officer
Shakhbut's visit
Iraqi political situation
Israeli lobby
Public Affairs Officer, Baghdad	1965-1967
Bill Crockett and Dean Rusk
Assignment
U.S. Iraqi relations
Discrimination against Arabists
Dacca, East Pakistan	1967-1970
'67 War and Global Assignments Policy
Strength of Israeli lobby
State Department policy
Political situation
U.S. policy towards East Pakistan
Problems with political reporting
Arab Region North	1970-1972
Debriefing
Arab-Israeli dispute

Zionists and promotion problems

Political Consular, Tehran, Iran	1972-1974
Assignment
Political reporting
Decision to sell unlimited arms to Iran
Shah's development projects and CIA in Iran
DCM, New Zealand
Ambassador, Qatar	1977-1980
Phil Habib and appointment
Dealing with Qatar's government
Effect of Iran on Qatar
OPEC meeting
Qatar's investments in U.S.
Storming of U.S. embassy in Pakistan
Conclusion
Greatest accomplishment
Foreign Service as a career	