

AMBASSADOR BARRINGTON KING

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Education
Entry into Foreign Service
Cairo, Egypt	1957-1959
Disbursing officer
Political section daily press telegram
Departure of Europeans
Nasser's influence in Arab world
Ambassador Raymond Hare
Dar es Salaam, Tanganyika	1959-1961
French language training
Political situation; independence
British colonial rule
Emphasis on Africa by President Kennedy
Soviet threat
Opening of consulate in Zanzibar
Tracking situation
Desk officer, Tanganyika & Zanzibar	1961-1964
Impressions of African bureau
Interest in Africa by junior officers
Cyprus	1964-1967
Whole situation
Archbishop Makarios
Ambassador Toby Belcher
Greece-Cyprus relationship
Athens, Greece	1967-1972
Situation
U.S. Embassy's views of the situation
Ambassador Henry Tasca
Influence from U.S. military
U.S. policy in the area
Andreas Papandreou
Greek-American Lobby
Tasca's antagonism towards Turks
DCM, Tunis, Tunisia	1975-1979

Relations with Tunisians
Role as DCM
President Bourguiba
U.S. fear
Cultural influence of France
Tunisian reaction to Camp David Accords

DCM, Islamabad, Pakistan

1979-1984

Role as DCM
Burning of U.S. Embassy
Unsatisfactory response by Pakistani government
Failure of rescue mission in Tehran
Soviet attack on Afghanistan
Ambassador's role in Karachi
President Zia
Nuclear weapons development
India
American concerns on Soviet occupation
Carter's policies adopted by Reagan