

FRANCIS M. KINNELLY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in Brooklyn, New York, raised in New England
Bowdoin College, SAIS
U.S. Army, Korea
Entered Foreign Service in 1962

State Department - FSI - German Language training	1962
The Hague, Netherlands - Rotational Officer	1962-1964
Rotterdam duties
Department of Commerce - Exchange Officer	1964-1966
Middle East responsibilities
Qattara Depression idea
GATT
State Department - FSI - Economic and Commercial Studies	1966-1967
Manila, Philippines - Economic and Commercial officer	1967-1970
President Marcos and Imelda
Security
Nationalism
Protecting U.S. interests
Trade
MIT - Economics training	1970-1971
Study courses
State Department - EUR - Economic Affairs	1971-1974
OECD
Agency coordination
European Union
Yom Kippur war (1973)
Oil crisis
International Energy Agency (IEA)
Saudi oil supplies
Bonn, Germany - Economic Officer	1974-1977
European Community
Treaty of Rome
German social programs
Relations with Germans
East Germany's economy

State Department - OES (Science Bureau) - Technology Oceans and International Environmental and Scientific Affairs Assistant Secretary Thomas Pickering Colombo Plan meeting at Kathmandu Technology transfer National Science Foundation input Pharmaceuticals UNCSTD conference Institute for Science and Technology Cooperation USAID programs Vienna conference	1977-1980
Princeton University - Woodrow Wilson School of Public Affairs Course of Study	1980-1981
Madrid, Spain - Science and Technology Attaché Cooperation program National Science Foundation complaints Spanish goals "Rias" study Projects Nuclear energy Basques Non-proliferation treaty Ambassador Todman Ottawa, Canada - Science and Technology Counsels - 1985-1989 Acid rain Environment Protection Agency Nuclear Program Nuclear submarines Arctic cooperation Science cooperation	1981-1985
State Department - Director - Office of Nuclear Technology and Safeguards Chernobyl incident IEAE (International Atomic Energy Agency) Division of responsibilities Soviet cooperation	1989-1991
Bonn, Germany - Science Counselor Research in Eastern Germany Evaluation of East German institutions	1991-1992
State Department - Senior Advisor, OES	1992-1993