

STEPHANIE SMITH KINNEY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Early FS

- Research Paper stating that women FSO's could not be married and remain in FS
- Meeting her husband
- Decision to join the FS
- Husband's A-100 training
- Hoping for career with USIA, SSK takes FS exam and becomes second married woman to pass
- Accompanies husband to Mexico post while waiting for an appointment

Mexico

- Teaching at Colegio Americano
- Interaction with foreign nationals
- Terrence Leonhardy, Consul General in Guadalajara, kidnapped
- Junior FSO John Patterson kidnapped and killed
- Mexican hostility toward U.S.
- Passing through "dining room" of Mexican guerilla leader Luis Cabanas

Spouse Concerns

- Washington, DC (1973)
- Pregnant and no job
- Spouse classes organized by Dorothy Stansbury
- Attended meetings with Research Committee for Spouses
- 1972 Directive
- Work pushing for Spouse concerns
- Chairman of working group on modern FS spouse
- Forum Report
- Retakes FS exam, enters DOS
- Fighting for spouse concerns benefiting her health
- Assigned to Carol Laise's management reform team
- Thursday "Lunch Bunch"
- Memo recommending establishment of FLO delivered to Secretary of State Vance
- Janet Lloyd chosen as first FLO Director, expansion of FLO
- Fights for compensation and annuity for divorced spouses
- Institutional approach vs. personal approach
- AAFSW's reaction to 1972 Directive
- Senior wives' reaction to younger wives' complaints
- Convincing Laise

First post: Rome, Italy

- Tandem Couples
- Lack of Support

1979-1981

Assessment of Skills Bank
Various functions of FLO
Mental Health Program

Further work for and thoughts on the FS

Concerning Evacuations

Laise's career

Foreign Service lifestyle

Primary identity

Compromises so that she and her husband could be together

Odd jobs enhance her promotion rate

Uruguay/Paraguay desk

Work at Oceans, Environment, and Science Bureau

Speculation on Clinton's policy on environmental issues

Husband's view of his career as half of a tandem

Multilateral vs. bilateral diplomacy

Vassar College

Going after her goals

FS suffered from 1972 Directive

Future of FS

What is the image that the U.S. wants to present overseas?

Composition of FS

Need to define the role of the U.S. in the world

Balance