

AMBASSADOR C. WILLIAM KONTOS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Raised in Chicago area
University of Chicago, London School of economics
U.S. Army, World War II
Marshall Plan for Greece	1950-1953
John Nuveen
Civil Government Division
Greek Civil War
Relations with Embassy
Drachma devaluation
Ambassador Peurifoy
Foreign Operations Administration	1953-1959
Program budget officer
Office of Organization and Methods
Africa – Europe Bureau: Executive Director (FOA)
Sri Lanka	1959-1961
AID mission
British legacy
Local Environment
U.S. Projects
Relations with embassy
The Bandaranaiques
Economic problems
Lagos, Nigeria	1961-1964
Deputy director, AID mission
U.S. AID programs
Arthur D. Little contract
Nigerian Federation
Relations with embassy
Sargent Shriver and Peace Corps Problems
Local Environment
Nation War College	1964-1965
General comments
AID	1965-1967
Director of Personnel

Organization
Recruitment
Peace Corps
Pakistan	1967-1970
Director of AID
Karachi, Lahore, Islamabad
Embassy intrigue
U.S. projects
U.S. political goals
AID	1970-1972
Program evaluation officer
Cultural barriers to progress
Conclusions re US foreign assistance efforts
Technical assistance programs
AF	1972
Deputy Assistant Secretary
Nigerian affairs
Biafra "starvation"
Nigerian unity problems
Lebanon's civil war
Policy Planning Staff	1974-1976
Winston Lord
Operations
Saudi-U.S. joint commission
Jordan's "Black September"
Cyprus Task Force
UN operations
Ambassador Moynihan at UN
"Policy by speeches"
Sinai Support Mission	1976-1980
Operations of Sinai Field Mission
"E Systems" role
Observation posts
Khartoum, Sudan	1980-1983
Ambassador
Local political environment
U.S. interests
Internal divisions
President Nimeiry
U.S. assistance

Downhill in Sudan
Corruption
AID mission

Policy planning council 1983-1986
African and UN issues
General operations
Human rights issues
South Africa issue

South Africa Advisory Committee 1986- 1987
Executive director
Composition of Committee
Limited influence
Congressional views and reactions
Relations with State Department
Problems