

ERNEST C. KUHN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

From the Peace Corps to USAID	1963-1965
Rural Development Division (RDD)	1965
Refugee Work	1965-1966
Misplaced Emphasis on the Meo
A Day Off
Carrying Arms
Rice Drops
Quonset Hut Fire
General Ma's Visit
Mendenhall and the AID Operation
Charlie Mann as Mission Director in Laos
Kuhn's Relationships with AID Employees
Chao Saykham's Relationship with the French
Meo and Guerilla Tactics
American Relationship with the Meo
U.S. Objectives in Laos
Integration of the Meo into Laos
Notion of an Autonomous Meo State
Personality of Vang Pao
Vang Pao's Suspicions of Pathet Lao Refugees, 1969
Nai Khongs and AID
Don Sjostrom's Death, 1967
Development of Operation Linkup
Senator Young's Visit, 1968
Rumors of Phou Pha Thi Under Attack
Eleven Americans Honored by the King of Laos
North Vietnamese Attack Phou Pha Thi
TACAN- Navigational System
AID Command Post for Sam Neua--Site 111
Defense of Pha Thi
Decision to Abandon Pha Thi
Refugee Problem Following the Attack
BBC Documentary on Laos, 1968
Media Attention on Laos
Events of the Autumn of 1968
New USAID Mission Director
Vietnamese Road Built Near Pha Thi
North Vietnamese Attacks
Vang Pao's Attempt to Recapture Pha Thi

Helicopter Accident
End of the Attempt to Retake Pha Thi and the Attack on Na Khang
Refugee Work at Lat Sen
Evacuations to Vientiane, 1969
Attack on Muong Soui Leading to an American Death, 1969
Airstrip at Xieng Dat
Transferred to Ban Houei Sai
Bombing of Friendly Areas by American Planes
Refugee Work in Ban Houei Sai 1970
Amnesty is Offered to Communist Terrorists, 1970

Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs' Fight Against Heroin

Reassignment to Vientiane 1971-1975
Unofficial Assistance to the Pathet Lao, 1973-1974
Evacuation of the AID Mission, 1975
Chapman Keeps the Embassy Open in Laos

Map of Laos, 1965-1975

Map of Xieng Khouang, Sam Neua and E. Luang Prabang Provinces, 1965-1970