

AMBASSADOR DENIS LAMB

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in Ohio
John Carroll University; Columbia University
Private employment
Entered the Foreign Service in 1964
Fort de France, Martinique; Rotation Officer	1965-1966
Environment
French
Government
Paris, France; Administrative Officer, US Mission, OECD	1966-1969
Organization of OECD
US objectives
US Mission
Operations
US relations
COCOM
Duties
Environment
1968 student uprising
De Gaulle withdraws forces from NATO
Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Systems Analysis Studies	1969-1970
State Department; User Support Division	1970-1973
Automated Data Processing
Traffic Analysis (TAGS)
Document System
Interim assignment, Policy Planning Staff (1971)
CIEP
Document Classification (White House)
State Department; Officer in Charge, OECD Affairs	1973-1977
Euratom
US Participation
International Energy Agency (IEA)
French views
Petroleum
Washington Energy Conference, 1974
Conference on International Economic Cooperation

Executive Committee in Special Session (XCSS)
Oil and food crises
Human Rights
State Department; Chief of Staff, Deputy Secretary of State	1977-1978
Secretary Christopher's staff
Brasilia visit
Human Rights
Warren Christopher
Brzezinski
Cyrus Vance
Personnel
Greece-Turkey
Congressional Relations
Brussels, Belgium; DCM, US Rep to European Community	1978-1982
COREPER, II
European Community (EC)
Instructions from Washington
Commodity issues
Mission organization
Personnel
European Parliament
US business community
UK joins EC
State Department; Deputy Assistant Secretary, Economic Bureau	1982-1987
Global debt crisis
Trade issues
Siberian gas pipeline sanctions
Export Administration Act of 1979
Japan
US Tariffs
US Trade Representatives
Reciprocal Trade Agreements
GATT
Sanctions
Protection of US firms
Congressional testimony
Treasury Dept. relations
State Department, FSI; Ambassadorial Seminar	1987
Paris, France; Ambassador to OECD	1987-1990
OECD, Operations
The French

Issues
Eastern Europe
Non-Member outreach
US Secretaries of State
US support
Congressional interest
Turkey
Personnel
Official entertaining

Retirement	1990
Private Assignments with OECD	1990-
Comments and observations
Appendix A: Farewell Remarks to the OECD Council	1990