

AMBASSADOR DAVID F. LAMBERTSON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in Kansas
University of Redlands University; Occidental College
Entered Foreign Service 1963
State Department – Special Project	1963-1964
State Department – FSI – Vietnamese language student	1964
Saigon, Vietnam – USAID	1965-1968
Air America
Security
Provincial Reporting Units (PRU's) personnel
Saigon Politics
Constitution Building effort
Phil Habib
VIP visits
Hue standoff
US political involvement
Environment
U.S. ambassadors
Embassy organization
Tet Offensive
State Department – FSI – Indonesian language training	1968
Medan, Indonesia – Consular officer	1968-1971
Environment
Indonesian army
Paris (Vietnam) Peace Talks – spokesman	1971-1973
Participants
Kissinger
Problems
Joint Economic Commission
State Department – East Asia-Regional Affairs	1973-1975
Vietnam
State Department – Deputy Director, Japan desk	1975-1977
Lockheed scandal

Tokyo, Japan – Political officer Ambassador Mansfield Korea Tokyo Economic Summit President Carter’s visit	1977-1980
US Delegation to the United Nations, New York	1980
Royal College of Defense Studies, London, England	1981
State Department – Korea Country Director KAL 007 Shoot down Korean politics President Reagan’s visit Rice issue	1981-1984
Canberra, Australia – Deputy Chief of Mission Environment	1984-1986
Seoul, Korea – Deputy Chief of Mission Environment Politics U.S. Military	1986-1987
State Department – Deputy Asst. Secretary, East Asia Cambodia Vietnam/Cambodian animosity ASSAN POW/MIA issue United Nations and Cambodia Chinese Refugees Philippines Quayle visit Congressional interest Limitations of Power	1987-1989
Diplomat in Residence, University of Kansas	1989-1990
Ambassador to Thailand Confirmation Process Embassy Economic issues American Chamber of Commerce Refugees	1991-1994

Cambodia
Opium
Population
Military
Politics
Personalities
Royalty
Relations

Retirement