

AMBASSADOR GEORGE LANE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background in Middle East
Impressions of the Arab world
Assignments in Syria and Morocco
Importance of French in the Middle East
Perspectives of Israel
View of Arab league
Libyan revolution
Qadhafi
Washington	1970-1974
Libyan Desk officer
Problems with Qadhafi
Arms sales in Libya
Mbabane, Swaziland	1974-1976
BLS countries
Situation in Swaziland
Swazi experiment in multiracialism
Assassination of Ambassador Meloy and Bob Waring
Beirut	1976-1978
Chargé
Origin of assignment
Situation in Lebanon
Evacuation of Americans
Arrival in Beirut
Situation at the Embassy
President Sarkis
Problems of the divided city
Living problems
Arrival of Ambassador Parker
1978 Israeli invasion of Lebanon
UNIFIL
Embassy relations with government in 1978
Ambassador to Yemen	1978-1981
Reasons behind posting
Senate confirmation
Failed coup attempt
1979 Yemen civil war
Relations with Saudi Arabia

- Importance of oil money
- Organization of mission
- Unification of Yemen
- President Salan
- Iraqi-Yemen relations
- Danger at post in 1979
- Evacuation of dependents
- Evacuation problems
- Congressional visitors
- Relations with U.S. military
- Cold War element

Stuttgart, Germany

1982-1986

- Political advisor to DCINC at EUCOM
- Military crises
- 1983 Beirut incident
- INF deployment
- Coordination of military and embassies
- Selling the INF deployment
- Importance of personal contacts

Conclusion

- Future of U.S. in NATO
- Germany and NATO
- Highpoints of Career
- The Foreign Service in U.S. Arab policy
- A career in the Foreign Service