

AMBASSADOR JAMES T. LANEY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in Arkansas; raised in Arkansas and Tennessee
Yale University
US Amy, Korea (Counter Intelligence Corps)
Syngman Rhee
Korean politics
Yale Divinity School
Marriage

Wallingford, Connecticut: Methodist Minister

Choate (Rosemary Hall) School; Teacher

Yale University: Korean language study

1958-1959

Seoul, Korea: Methodist Minister; Yonsei University campus

1959-1963

Duties as Chaplain

Students

Syngman Rhee ousted

Political oppression

Elections

Insurrection

Park Chung Hee coup

Chargé Marshall Green

Missionary community

USAID programs

Japanese

President Eisenhower visit

Living environment

“Veneratio Vitae (VV)” Club

Student Movement

World Vision Korea

Speaking engagements

King’s College, Cambridge, England: Korean Culture studies

1963-1964

Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut: Doctors degree study

1964-1965

Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Kentucky: Professor

1966-1969

President, National Community Relations Council

Demonstrations

Emory University, Atlanta: Dean/President

1969-1980

Woodruff Gift

University activities
Organization
(President) Carter Center
Association with President Carter
Relationship with Korea's Yonsei University

Overseer's Committee, Harvard Divinity School
Yale University, University Council
Task Force for Korea

China visit

1981

Korea

Kwangju Rebellion
Personal assessment of Korea for President Carter
Suggestions of Ambassadorship
Carter withdraws US troops
Korean Intelligence Service
Warren Christopher
Selection as US Ambassador to Korea
Announcement of appointment
Relations with Emory University

Seoul, Korea: US Ambassador

1993-1996

Comments on Clinton White House
Jakarta, Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) meeting
Ambassadorial preparations
Confirmation proceedings
Jesse Helms
North Korea Nuclear issue
US-Korea military relationship
Foreign Minister Han Sung-Joo
Concept of nuclear bombing of North Korea
Radio and TV interviews
Seriousness of North Korea issue
Bob Gallucci
Aborted Nunn/Lugar North Korea visit
Threats of North Korea
Nervousness in Seoul
Kim Il Sung invitation
Ex-President Carter visit
President Kim Young-sam
President Clinton visit (Cheju)
Yongbyon nuclear facility
Korea Energy Development Organization (KEDO)
Carter's reception in Washington
Possible evacuation
Four Party Talks

Kim Young-sam Washington visit
General Luck
Agencies in Embassy
Embassy operations
Environment
Public speaking
Kwangju visit
Blue House
Korean Universities
Visits to Washington
Relations with Korean government
DCM Charles Kartman
Intellectual property
Trade issues
Demilitarized Zone (DMZ)
Commanding generals
US-Korea relations

Resignation

1996

Post Retirement

1997-1999

Liaison between President Clinton and Lee Teng-hui
Lee Teng-hui meeting
Kim Young-sam meeting
Quemoy and Matsu Islands
Council on Foreign Relations
North Korea
China
President (S. Korea) Roh Moo Hyun