

AMBASSADOR JOHN LEDDY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Senior Assistant to Undersecretary Dillon	1957-1959
Douglas Dillon
1957 Buenos Aires Conference
Economic policy during Eisenhower Administration
Change in economic policy
Importance of developing countries
Assistant Treasury Secretary	1959-1962
AS for International financial affairs
Development of U.S. trade deficit
Kenneth Galbraith and the gold drain
Origin of the General agreement to borrow the Alliance for Progress
Dillon's role in the Alliance for Progress
Establishment of the Inter-American Development Bank
George Ball
Ambassador to the OECD	1962-1965
Origin of Appointment
Purpose of the OECD
Handling shipping disputes
The Turkish Consortium
Involvement in UNCTAD
Goals at OECD
Assistant Secretary for Europe	1965-1969
Origin of appointment
French withdrawal from NATO force structure
U.S. relations with de Gaulle
U.S. response to French
Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia
U.S. –USSR cultural relations
Negotiating with the Soviets
President Johnson	