

WILLIAM W. LEHFELDT

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in California
Japanese-American residents in WWII
U.S. Army - WWII
Georgetown University, School of Foreign Service
Diplomatic courier	1950
IO - International Administrative officer	1952
Entered Foreign Service	1952
Kabul, Afghanistan	1952-1955
On loan to AID (ICA)
Helmand Valley Development Project
U.S. interests
Environment
Political organization
Soviet activity
Ambassador Angus Ward and Mrs. Ward
Vice President Nixon visit
Afghan-Pakistan relations
Bilbao, Spain - Vice Consul	1955-1957
Basque nationalism
Anti-Americanism
Soviet influence
Sheep herders and emigration
Environment
Guernica
Franco
U.S. interests
Harvard University - student	1957-1958
Economic studies
State Department - South Asian Affairs	1958-1961
Ceylon
Ambassador Gluck incident
U.S. interests
Communists
Indian relations
Pakistan relations
Kennedy administration transition

Pakistan breakup
Buenos Aires, Argentina - Economic/Petrol officer Frondizi ouster Military regime	1961-1962
Cordova, Argentina - Principal officer Industry CIA Politics Ambassador McClintock Alliance for Progress Argentine population make-up Peron President Guido Revolution U.S. interests	1962-1964
State Department - Personnel - Latin America Assignment problems Minority assignments	1964-1966
Naples, Italy - Deputy Principal officer Consulate General Homer Byington and the Kennedys Operations U.S. military (Sixth Fleet and AF South)	1966-1969
Tehran, Iran - Economic/Commercial officer (Covered by "Iran Project of the Columbia University Oral History Program")	1969