

AMBASSADOR SAMUEL WINFIELD LEWIS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|   |           |
|---|-----------|
| Early life and education  |           |
| Entrance into Foreign Service - 1954  |           |
| Naples, Italy; Refugee Relief ProgramComment on local employees   | 1954-1955 |
| Florence, Italy 1955-1959Reporting on the LeftSan MarinoRoman interludeAmbassador Luce and arsenic                            |           |
| State Department; Italian deskDisagreement with DCM in RomeChester BowlesChiefs of Mission meetings, Bowles stylePrinceton    | 1959-1963 |
| Brazil; Agency for International Development (AID)Embassy Executive Officer   | 1964-1966 |
| State Department; Brazilian deskMilitary regime in Brazil   | 1966-1968 |
| NSC staff; Latin American Affairs   | 1968-1969 |
| State Department; Latin American planning   | 1969-1970 |
| Senior Seminar  | 1970-1971 |
| State Department; Special Assistant to DirectorGeneral observationsTask Force implementationMacomber                              | 1971-1972 |
| Kabul, Pakistan; DCMAmbassador NeumannCoup by Daoud in 1973Competition with the SovietsMoscow's miscalculation in Afghanistan | 1972-1974 |

|   |                  |
|---|------------------|
| State Department; Policy Planning deputy Kissinger's use of Planning staff Kissinger's use of speeches Kissinger's annoyance with Israelis Congressional warning Relationship with the regional bureaus   | 1974-1975 |
| State Department; Assistant Secretary for International Organizations Ambassador Moynihan Moynihan-Kissinger relationship UN ambassador as Cabinet member Ambassador Scranton PLO and the UN US and UNESCO Anti-UN feeling in the US  | 1975-1977 |
| Transition to the Carter Administration Andrew Young's role Appointed ambassador to Israel - 1977 Israeli election surprise - 1977 A Jewish ambassador to Israel? - 1977 First meeting with Menachem Begin - 1977 Why the Sephardics supported Begin - 1977 Forming the first Begin cabinet - 1977 Begin and Brzezinski - 1977 The first Begin visit to the US - 1977 The US-USSR declaration - 1977     Israeli reaction     The US-Israeli "working paper"     Egyptian reaction Sadat's initiative and Begin's reaction - 1977 Role of Moroccan king - 1977 Sadat's visit to Jerusalem - 1977     US channels of communication     Sadat's arrival Maneuverings after the Sadat visit - 1977     Begin's trip to Washington     Sadat-Begin Christmas meeting     Role and influence of Ambassador Eilts     Role of General Sharon Jerusalem Conference fails - 1978     Carter blames Begin Terrorist attack by PLO commandos - 1978     Operation Litani and UNIFIL | 1977      |

- Begin's March trip to Washington - 1978
  - US sees Begin as intransigent
  - Souring of the mood
  - Sale of F-16s to Saudi Arabia
  - Mondale visit
- Leeds Castle meeting - 1978
  - Dayan's crucial role
- Begin and Sadat invited to Camp David - 1978
  - Israeli view of Vance
- Preparation and strategy for Camp David - 1978
- Carter's handling of the conference - 1978
- Strategies of the delegations - 1978
- Issue of the settlements on the West Bank - 1978
- The finale: success or bust - 1978
- Carter makes the breakthrough - 1978
  - The Jerusalem crisis
- Handling of the press - 1978
- The White House ceremony - 1978
- Carter-Begin disagreement - 1978
- US-Israeli discord - 1978
- Unhappiness in Jordan - 1978
  - Begin rejects US interpretations
  - Palestinian dissatisfaction
- Blair House negotiations - 1978
- Death of Golda Meir - 1978
  - Vance's shuttle efforts
  - An intercepted phone conversation
- Camp David II - 1979
  - Carter's annoyance
  - Invitation to Begin
- Carter visits Egypt and Israel - 1979
  - Breakthrough at breakfast
  - Carter wins
- Signing in Washington
- Exchange of ratifications - 1979
- US intermediary Robert Strauss - 1979
  - James Leonard as deputy
  - Sol Linowitz succeeds Strauss
- Autonomy talks begin - 1979
  - Begin-Dayan estrangement
- Egypt represents Palestinians
- Removal of Andrew Young - 1980
  - Question of contacts with the PLO
  - Pressures on Carter
  - The Cohen bill on Jerusalem
  - US abstention in the Security Council

- Carter bitterness about Jewish vote - 1980
- US ambassadors disagree about PLO and Lebanon - 1980
- Carter upsets American Jews - 1980
- Reagan Administration view of Middle East - 1981
- Escalating crisis in Lebanon - 1981
- Habib helps avert conflicts - 1981
- Begin defeats Peres in election - 1981
- Israel destroys the Iraqi reactor - 1981
- Setting up the MFO - 1981
- Delivery of US aircraft to Israel held up - 1981
- AWAC's sale to Saudi Arabia - 1981
- Begin's meeting with Reagan - 1981
  - An alliance?
  - A watered-down agreement
- Sadat's assassination and its consequences - 1981
  - American VIPs
  - The Nixon speech
  - Israelis measure Mubarak
- Sharon states his position on Lebanon - 1981
- Annexation of the Golan Heights - 1981
  - Begin's tirade
- Stoessel visit cools the atmosphere - 1982
  - Sharon is obstreperous
- Withdrawal from the Sinai - 1982
  - Resistance by the settlers
  - No precedent
- Sharon visit to Washington - 1982
  - An "amber light" for Sharon?
- War begins in Lebanon - 1982
  - Habib's anguish
  - Sentiment shifts in Washington
  - Did the US convey the wrong signal?
  - US abstains in the Security Council
  - A possible naval confrontation
  - PLO evacuation
- New US plan for peace initiative - 1982
  - Begin's negative reaction
  - Begin meets Lebanese President Gemayel
  - The Fez declaration
- Israeli Army moves into Beirut - 1982
  - Phalangists enter the refugee camps
  - US and Israeli reaction
  - Begin's depressions - 1982
  - Effect of his wife's death
  - Begin's passivity
  - Begin resigns

Lebanon after the massacres - 1982
    Thwarted by Sharon
Sharon's ploy - 1982
    Lebanon does not agree
The Reagan initiative - 1982-1983
    West Bank settlement complications
    Talks begin in Lebanon
    Shultz forges an agreement - in vain
Sharon forced out as Defense Minister - 1983
Shultz and McFarlane down on Syria - 1983
Shamir succeeds Begin - 1983
US Marine headquarters in Beirut blown up - 1983-1984
    End of US military involvement
Peres becomes Prime Minister - 1984
    Decision to leave as ambassador
An embarrassing ambassadorial speech - 1984
Peres faces problems - 1984-1985
    Helping sustain Israel's credit
Closer US-Israeli strategic cooperation - 1984-1985
Advice on dealing with Shamir - 1984
Rabin sees Syria as the key to peace - 1984
Israeli withdrawal from Lebanon begins - 1985
Taba delays the peace process - 1985-1986
Report of derogatory comments about Sharon - 1983-1984
    Sharon's indignant reaction
    Sharon blames US officials
A TV interview reignites the controversy - 1985
    Sharon accuses ambassador of lying
The Consulate General in Jerusalem
Aharon Yariv and Teddy Kollek
Sinai Field Force
Public opinion polls
The Mossad and the Shin Beth
    The Pollard case
"Clientitis"
Selecting ambassadors and DCMs
AIPAC
The Peres-Shultz relationship - 1984-1985
Lavi aircraft project
A US-Israel free trade zone - 1985
The Falasha emigration - 1985
Terrorism - prisoner exchange – 1985
Coordination with Peres - 1984-1985
The sandbar problem - 1984
Personal security

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Retirement                             | 1985-1987 |
| President of the US Institute of Peace | 1987-1993 |
| Director of the Policy Planning Staff  | 1993-1994 |
| Relationship with Christopher          |           |
| Speech at the Dayan Center             |           |