

GEORGE E. LICHTBLAU

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background and education
Labor economics at the New School of Social Research	1946-1949
Master's thesis on the World Federation of Trade Unions
US Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics	1949-1952
US Department of State, Bureau of Intelligence and Research	1952-1963
Labor Analyst
Foreign Service Reserve Officer	1963
Rockefeller Fellowship
Author of "The Politics of African Trade Unionism"
Abidjan, Ivory Coast; Regional Labor Attaché for West Africa	1966-1969
Issues: Tribal Conflict and Migrant Workers
Ivorian Government's Suspicions and Embassy Attitudes
Washington, DC and Excursion Tours of Duty
Urban League in Washington	1969-1970
Office of Economic Opportunity	1970-1971
Seoul, Korea; Labor Attaché	1972-1975
Human Rights
American Missionary George Ogle and the Korean CIA
Labor Management Relations, US Armed Forces and Civilian Employees
Asian-American Free Labor Institute
Federation of Korean Trade Unions
Embassy Attitudes towards Labor Work
Ambassador Phillip Habib
Ambassador Richard L. Sneider
Tel Aviv, Israel; Labor Attaché	1975-1978
Contacts with All Segments of Society
Ambassador Samuel Lewis
Department of State; NEA Labor Advisor	1978-
Travels throughout the region
Saudi Arabia
Yemen and the Jewish Community
Morocco and Tunisia
Exploitation of Palestinians in Saudi Arabia and Kuwait

Unions in former French colonies