

RALPH E. LINDSTROM

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born and raised in Anoka, Minnesota
U.S. Navy during World War II
Harvard University
Entered Foreign Service in 1952
McCarthyism

Kabul, Afghanistan - Consular/Political officer	1952-1954
U.S. policy and programs
Pushtunistan issue
Ambassador Angus Ward
AID mission
Environment
Life under the Wards
Paris, France - Financial officer	1954-1957
Economic officer
Ministry of Finance contacts
Dealing with the French
Hong Kong - Economic officer	1957-1959
China's "Great Leap Forward"
Reporting on China
U.S. press reporting
Taiwan and China issue
Princeton University - Economic Training	1959-1960
State Department - INR - Economic/Commercial officer	1960-1962
Soviet influence in the Third World
Assistant Secretary Hilsman
Oberammergau, Germany - Russian language training	1963
Moscow, USSR - Economic officer	1963-1965
Khrushchev and U.S. relations
Environment
Crumbling economy
Soviet economists
Alcoholism
Ambassador Foy Kohler

U.S. press Surveillance President Kennedy assassination Operations Brezhnev and economic reform
State Department - Economic Bureau Liaison with Treasury Department	1965-1967
Moscow, USSR - Economic Counselor PanAm/Aeroflot Moscow-U.S. initiative Ambassador Thompson Contacts with Soviets Brezhnev style Academic freedom in USSR Economic training in USSR Soviet science Czech spring of '68	1967-1969
Naval War College - student	1969-1970
Washington, D.C. - ACDA - International Relations officer Operations	1970-1973
Nairobi, Kenya - Deputy Chief of Mission Kenya's economy Ambassador Tony Marshall Regional security Entebbe rescue F-5s British presence Tribal politics Somalis Tanzania Idi Amin meeting	1973-1977
Dhahran, Saudi Arabia - Consul General ARAMCO takeover by Saudis Shiite community politicization Iranian agitation Security problems Tehran and Islamabad embassy repercussions Relations with Saudi officials Consular issues Prince Bandar U.S. military training mission	1978-1980

Staffing
Relations with Saudi business
Status of Women
Religious customs

State Department - Iranian affairs

1980-1983

Tehran Embassy takeover
Rafsanjani
Freeze of Iranian funds
Operations center
Contact attempts
Gary Sick and NSC
Algerian intervention in crisis
U.S.-Iran hostage agreement
Khomeini's proclamation
Future of U.S.-Iran relations