

ELIZABETH “LIZ” KENNEDY LION

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Land reform and feudal life of cane workers in Brazil

Peace Corps

Volunteering for the Peace Center

Assigned to Jamaica as Peace Corps volunteer

Marian Skinner and Bankra Craft, PCV project

Life long interest in crafts

Questions advisability of financing “introduced crafts” rather than indigenous crafts

AID Spouse

Attempted kidnapping of Donor Lion

His consideration for American/Brazilian girl involved

Society columnist notes

Work in Recife, Brazil as spouse of Consul General helping women market and improve their crafts

Selling crafts to “volunteer firemen”

End of Crafts “without roots”

Kingston, Jamaica

1977-1978

Work when she was spouse of AID director in Kingston, Jamaica

Olive Lewin and Contacts

PCV more fun than being AID Director’s spouse

Ruth Hillis, the Brazilian YWCA and Elizabeth Lion’s volunteer work

Keeping out the lizards and the cross draft

Heat and lack of car

Brazil vs. Jamaica

Vegetables and salads

Fruit drinks

Brazilian and Jamaica dishes vs. African cuisine

Situations in Brazil and Jamaica