

ARTHUR L. LOWRIE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Early interest in Foreign Service
Army service in Korean War
Foreign Service exam
Aleppo, Syria	1957-1959
Vice Consul
Roy Atherton as Consul General
Formation of United Arab Republic
Nasser's crackdown on communism
Beirut	1961
Arabic language training
Situation in Middle East
Khartoum	1962-1964
Political Officer
Arabization in the Sudan
Declared PNG shortly before Abboud overthrow
Tunis	1964-1967
Political/Labor Officer
Ambassador Russell
Impression of labor movement in Tunisia
Assignment to Armed Forces Staff College
INR/Algerian Desk	1968-1972
Analyzing the Sudanese guerilla force
Algerian natural gas contract
Dealing with corporate America
Baghdad	1972-1975
Chargé d'Affaires
Reopening the US post in Baghdad
Assessment of Belgian representation
Nationalization of Iraq Petroleum Company
Kurdish struggle against government
Improvement in U.S.-Iraqi relations
Impression of Saddam Hussein
Police state atmosphere in Iraq
NEA Chief of Mission meeting

Commercial relations with Iraq
Cairo	1975-1978
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Political Counselor Sadat's November 1977 trip to Jerusalem Briefing Israeli diplomats Impression of Sadat
United Nations	1978-1979
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Middle East Officer Camp David Accords Problems with negotiations
U.S. Mission to European Communities	1979-1983
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> NATO Defense College Differences between Europe and Middle East posts
POLAD to Central Command	1983-1986
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Working with military Development of the Rapid Deployment Joint Task Force Difficulty gaining Middle East cooperation Problem of support for Israel
Conclusion
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Greatest achievement/disappointment Reasons for retiring 	