

AMBASSADOR FRANK MAESTRONE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|   |           |
|---|-----------|
| Background                                  |           |
| Entry into Foreign Service                  | 1948      |
| Vienna                                      | 1948-1949 |
| Life in divided Austria                     |           |
| Political situation                         |           |
| Hamburg                                     | 1949-1954 |
| Visa and political officer                  |           |
| Khorramshahr, Iran                          | 1960-1962 |
| Principal officer                           |           |
| Shatt – al – Arab Problems                  |           |
| View of Shah                                |           |
| Arms to Iran                                |           |
| NATO  | 1968-1971 |
| Reaction to 1069 invasion of Czechoslovakia |           |
| Helsinki Declaration                        |           |
| Cairo                                       | 1974-1976 |
| DCM   |           |
| Kissinger shuttle diplomacy                 |           |
| Acting as Charge                            |           |
| Ambassador to Kuwait                        | 1976-1979 |
| U.S. objectives                             |           |
| Palestine                                   |           |
| Oil   |           |
| Kuwait and Arab world                       |           |
| Director Sinai Support Mission              | 1980-1982 |
| Israeli withdrawal                          |           |
| Technical monitoring                        |           |
| Problems of on-site Egyptian deployment     |           |
| Manila                                      | 1971-1974 |
| Political counselor                         |           |
| Ferdinand Marcos                            |           |
| Political situation                         |           |
| Martial law                                 |           |

Insurrections
American policy

Cairo

Sadat

1974-1976

Retrospect

Importance of embassy

Kuwait's military purchases and ambassador