

MICHAEL M. MAHONEY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Beginnings                                       |           |
| Education  |           |
| Interest in International Affairs                |           |
| Liberia, Peace Corps                             | 1968-1969 |
| Graduate Studies at Johns Hopkins                |           |
| Peace Corps Training                             |           |
| Situation in Liberia                             |           |
| Teaching in Monrovia                             |           |
| Peace Corps Elsewhere in Liberia                 |           |
| Rule of President Tubman                         |           |
| Interest in the Foreign Service                  |           |
| Newspaper Work                                   | 1970-1971 |
| Foreign Service Examination                      |           |
| Character of Junior Foreign Service Officers     |           |
| Refugee & Migration Officer                      |           |
| Trinidad & Tobago, Consular Officer              | 1971-1974 |
| Prime Minister Eric Williams                     |           |
| Embassy Relations with Williams                  |           |
| Heavy Visa Workload                              |           |
| Feelings About Consular Work                     |           |
| Athens, Greece, Passport Officer                 | 1974-1975 |
| Turkish Invasion of Cyprus                       |           |
| Crisis in American Consular Services             |           |
| Personal Assistant to Ambassador Kubisch         |           |
| Change of Ambassadors                            |           |
| Greek Reaction to Cyprus Crisis                  |           |
| Blaming the United States                        |           |
| NATO Relationship                                |           |
| Split Between Consular Section & Rest of Embassy |           |
| State Department, ARA Policy Planning            | 1975-1978 |
| Policy & Resource Management Documents           |           |
| Policy and AID Levels                            |           |
| Trip Planning                                    |           |
| Kissinger Views on Latin America                 |           |
| Ford-Carter Transition                           |           |
| Human Rights                                     |           |
| ARA's 2nd Rate Status in the Foreign Service     |           |

|   |           |
|---|-----------|
| State Department, Consular Bureau                     | 1978-1979 |
| Reorganizing Management of the Bureau                 |           |
| Removal of Francis Knight                             |           |
| Creation of Citizens' Emergency Center                |           |
| Ron Sommerville Innovations                           |           |
| Mexican Prison Problems                               |           |
| Prisoner Transfer Treaties                            |           |
| Computers for Consular Programs                       |           |
| Near-Transfer of Visa Legal Office to Immigration     |           |
| Power of Assistant Secretary Barbara Watson           |           |
|   |           |
| Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, Consul             | 1979-1982 |
| Situation in the Dominican Republic                   |           |
| Immigration to the United States                      |           |
| Relations of the Ambassador to the Visa Section       |           |
| Visa Frauds   |           |
| Staff Morale Problems                                 |           |
|   |           |
| Industrial College of the Armed Forces                | 1982-1983 |
| Reaction to Curriculum                                |           |
| Vietnam & the Armed Services                          |           |
|   |           |
| Montreal, Canada, Chief, Consular Section             | 1983-1987 |
| Quebec Separatism                                     |           |
| 3rd Country Immigrant Visas                           |           |
| Installation of WANG Computer System                  |           |
| Bilingualism of Staff                                 |           |
| American Services                                     |           |
| Feelings toward Americans                             |           |
| Management of the Post                                |           |
|   |           |
| State Department, Chief, Citizens' Emergency Services | 1987-1990 |
| Functions of the Office                               |           |
| Arrests of U.S. Citizens                              |           |
| Bombing of PanAm 103                                  |           |
| - Public Anger at State Dept.                         |           |
| - Congressional Hearings                              |           |
| - Lessons Learned                                     |           |
| - Bureaucratic Reaction                               |           |
| Travel Advisories                                     |           |
| - Criteria for Issuing Advisories                     |           |
| - Travel Information Sheets                           |           |
| - Interest in Advisories by Other Countries           |           |
| - Growth of Citizens' Services Program                |           |
| - Reaction of Travel Agencies                         |           |
| Hostages in Lebanon                                   |           |
| - Situation in Lebanon                                |           |
| - Reagan Administration Reaction                      |           |

- Iran-Contra Affair
- CIA Role
- Reaction of Hostages' Families
- U.S. Government Treatment of the Policy Issue
- Terry Anderson Case & his Sister's Activities
- Final Release of Hostages
- Personal Reaction to Pressures of this Job

|  |                  |
|--|------------------|
| State Department, Personnel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Counseling Consular Officers</li> <li>Career Development Policy</li> <li>Discipline in Assignments</li> <li>Civil Service Excursion Assignments</li> <li>Consular Cone System</li> <li>Consular Management</li> <li>Women's Class Action Suit</li> <li>Assignment of Minorities</li> <li>Attitudes of Minorities Toward Assignment Process</li> <li>Problem of Career Leveling-Off</li> <li>Functional Hierarchy in State</li> <li>Personnel vs Bureaus on Assignments</li> <li>Onward Assignment of Personnel Officers</li> </ul> | 1990-1993 |
|--|------------------|

|   |                  |
|---|------------------|
| Rome, Italy, Consul General <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>U.S. Agencies in Rome</li> <li>Ambassador Reginald Bartholomew</li> <li>Embassy-Consular Section Relations</li> <li>DCM James Creagan</li> <li>American Citizen Services</li> <li>Immigrant Visas</li> <li>Problems with Italian Bureaucracy</li> <li>Consular Automation &amp; Closing Constituent Posts</li> <li>Future of ConGen Naples</li> <li>Italian Political Scene</li> <li>U.S.-Italian Relations</li> <li>Notable Consular Cases</li> <li>Relations with the Consular Bureau</li> <li>Future of the Consular Function</li> <li>Future of Consular Personnel</li> </ul> | 1993-1995 |
|---|------------------|