

BRUCE MALKIN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in Philadelphia, PA
University of Pennsylvania; London School of Economics,
University of Geneva, Switzerland
Entered Foreign Service 1969
Kingston, Jamaica – Rotation Officer	1969-1972
Government
Environment
P.M. Manley
Marriage
Economy
Temporary Duty, Commerce Dept – Trade Promotion	1972-1973
State Department – INR – Japan Analyst	1973-1974
Japanese economy
State Department – FSI – Spanish Language Training	1974
Guadalajara, Mexico – Economic officer	1974-1977
Economy
U.S. citizens
Security
U.S. economic interests
Singapore – Commercial officer	1977-1981
Politics
U.S. interests
Economy
Bribery
State Department – Economic bureau	1981-1983
Generalized System of Preferences Program
United States Mission to the OAS	1983-1986
Trade restrictions
State Department – EAP Bureau – Regional Econ. Policy	1986-1988
State Department – EAP Bureau – UN relations (Asia)	1988-1998

Human Rights (worker) issue
AFL-CIO Asian Affairs Office

State Department – East Asia & Pacific Bureau – Global Issues 1998-2002

Human trafficking
Grants to NGO's
Asian Regional Initiative
Labor conditions
Country issues
United Nations efforts
Unions in Asia

Retirement 2002
Volunteer work