

LEONARD H. MARKS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Raised in Pittsburgh, PA
University of Pittsburgh and Pitt Law School
Andrew Mellon
Law practice

Washington, D.C.

1942-1946

Office of Price Administration (OPA)
Federal Communications Commission (FCC)

Washington, D.C. law practice

1946-1965

Field of communications
Canadian considerations
BBC

USIA Director

1965-1969

Surprise appointment by President Eisenhower
Eisenhower and use of the military
Separation of USIA from State Department - relations
"Super" cultural officers in Paris, London and Tokyo
Defection of Svetlana Stalin
Vietnam controversies in U.S.
Senator Fulbright
President Johnson
Congressman John Rooney
Richard Davis
Voice of America and the Soviets
Cultural exchanges
De Gaulle and NATO