

PROFESSOR RAY MARSHALL

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Millsaps College, B.A.
Louisiana State University, M.A.
U.C. Berkeley, Ph.D.

Views on labor theories

International perspective
Comparative methods
Economic strategies: low wage vs. high wage

Naval Occupation Force, Japan

1945-1946

United States naval officer
Labor movements and democratic society
Wagner vs. Taft-Hartley Act
Evolution of unions in Japan and Germany
"Taylorism" and the American system

Comm. on the Skills of the American Work Force

Co-Chairman
Chairman of the International Working Group
Unheard Voices
Unions essential to "high performance"
Workers need independent source of power
International labor standards

Labor Attaché program

Labor diplomacy towards Israel and Mexico
The Copenhagen Group
OECD
"Moral power" in labor issues
Insufficient priority given to labor attaché program
Relations between Dept. of Labor and Dept. of State

Role of the Secretary of Labor