

ELIZABETH MARTIN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Bombay, India	1946-1948
Spouse to India, EM remains in US to have baby
No Spouse training
Difficult trip with two small children, sister accompanied them
Train and Hotel reservations post World War II
Gandhi assassination
Boarding house
Servant hierarchy in Bombay
Baby formula
Tokyo, Japan	1949-1951
Kobe & Osaka, Japan	1951-1953
Fukuoka, Japan	1953-1956
Spouse born in Tokyo, Japanese language training
Remains in U.S. because of lack of housing
Trip across Pacific with small children
Spouse's work in Japan
Studied Japanese, difference between men's and women's language
Cooking lessons by Japanese cook for American women
Comments
Call in Bombay
Spouse training at FSI
Diverse opinions of spouses at meeting at State in early 1970's
Fed up with FS wives at that point
Professional spouses and their problems with assignments abroad
Unable to pursue career as chemist
A spouse who was able to work as a doctor in Fukuoka
Advances in chemistry
Endorsed 1971 Guidelines because young generation would be affected
Young women's objectives were "pipe dreams"; hesitated to sign the Guidelines	