

AMBASSADOR GARY L. MATTHEWS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in Springfield, Missouri
US Army, Germany	1955-1958
Drury College, Oklahoma State University Columbia University
Entered Foreign Service - 1961
State Department - Surinam desk officer	1961
Bonn, Germany - General FSO	1962-1964
Soviet threat
President Kennedy visit
State Department - Operations Center officer	1964-1965
Tonkin Gulf Resolution
Duties
Relations with Pentagon
FSI - Polish language training	1965-1966
Warsaw, Poland - Visa officer	1966-1967
Environment
Ambassador Gronouski
Security
Poznan, Poland - Economic/Commercial officer	1967-1968
Environment
Church problems
Soviets
Polish press
Columbia University - East European Studies	1968-1969
SDS disruptions
Left-wing academics
State Department - Soviet Affairs officer	1969-1971
Soviet threat
Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe (CSCE)
Relations with NSC
FSI - Vietnam Training Center	1971

Vietnam - CORDS Operations Pacification program Military and diplomacy Paris accords	1971-1973
Leningrad, USSR - Deputy Principal officer Contacts Environment Security Visitors Helsinki accords Znaniye Society Economics Travel Jewish residents Soviet-East Europe relations	1973-1976
Dusseldorf, Germany - The Pearson Program Coordinator for International Business Development for State of Missouri	1977
State Department - Deputy Director Soviet Affairs Secretary Vance visit to Moscow Vienna Summit - 1979 Brezhnev regime Soviet doves and hawks Afghanistan invasion Marshall Shulman President Carter and Soviet policy Ambassador Dubs' murder Soviet foreign activities Brzezinski Ambassador Tom Watson Arms control Getting tough with Soviets over Afghanistan invasion US Olympic boycott Secretary of State Al Haig US personalities and relations Walter Stoessel	1977-1981
State Department - Executive Assistant, Under Secretary for Political Affairs British ally Falklands War President Reagan and foreign affairs	1981-1982

Judge Bill Clark Sinai negotiations
Senior Seminar Reflections on seminar	1982-1983
State Department - Bureau of Human Rights Anatoly Sharansky case Operations Israeli problems Foreign human rights programs Pet Derian Dictatorships and human rights Congressional interest Elliott Abrams	1983-1985
Valletta, Malta - Ambassador Dom Mintoff Terrorism US relations Libya relations Egyptian airliner hijacking US bombs Libya	1985-1987
State Department - Coordinator for Soviet Union Affairs US Moscow Embassy problem Security problems Congressional interests Soviet Washington Embassy construction Sgt. Lonetree case Relations with Bureaus	1987