

JAMES MCCARGAR

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Family background in California Public schooling in San Francisco Educated at Stanford	1920-1941
Entry into Foreign Service Cram school Oral exam Interest in Russia	1941-1942
Soviet Union- travel to post Itinerary: Brazil, Africa; Middle East Peregrinations through Soviet Union	1942
Soviet Union- Kuibyshev Ambassador Standley	1942
Soviet Union- Moscow Duties of Tommy Thompson Life in wartime Moscow Kremlinology	1942
Soviet Union- Vladivostok Trans-Siberian railway Living conditions Angus Ward	1942-1943
Soviet Union- Moscow A night in Lyubyanka prison	1943
Report on conditions in Vladivostok Romantic interlude	1942-1943
Santo Domingo Trujillo Refugee settlement- DORSA	1943-1944
Military Career ONI Aleutian Islands Soviet ships	1944-1946

Soviet attack on the Kuril Islands
Returning of Red Army prisoners
Sinking a Soviet ship

Hungary- Budapest	1946-1947
The Pond
Conditions in Hungary
Communist pressure tactics
Reaction to the Truman Doctrine
Escape network
Cardinal Mindszenty
Romanian royals
US military corruption in Budapest
Italy- Genoa	1947-1948
American role in the 1948 Italian elections
The Pond- from State to CIA
Office of Policy Coordination	1948-1950
Chief of the Southeastern European Division
National Committee for Free Europe
Albania
Kim Philby
Guy Burgess
Sumner Welles
Carmel Office
France- Paris	1950-1954
Promotion difficulties
From Embassy to COCOM
Resignation from the Foreign Service
Nation Committee for Free Europe	1955-1977
Assembly of Captive European Nations
European Director for Political and Social Programs
Lyman Kirkpatrick
Interrogation in the Department	