

CONSUL GENERAL GRANT V. MCCLANAHAN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born of missionary parents in Egypt and raised there

Returned to U.S. - 1936

Life in Egypt

Muskingum College, New Concord, Ohio

American University of Cairo, Egypt

U.S. Navy - WWII

State Department - Political Analyst, Egypt

1946-1954

British-Egyptian treaty

UN meetings, New York

King Farouk

Ambassador Jefferson Caffery

Muslim Brotherhood

Israeli influence in U.S.

Arab-Israel dispute

Loy Henderson

Egypt's officers coup - 1952

Sudan

Soviet influence

Dhahran, Saudi Arabia - Consul

1954-1957

ARAMCO

Saudi Arabian justice

Liquor problems

Reporting

King Saud

Palestinians

Bahrain

Buraimi Oasis issue

Suez Canal issue

Nasser influence

London, England - Near East - Political Officer

1957-1962

Anti-American sentiment

Suez aftermath

Relations with foreign office

Chatham House meetings

Iraqi Revolution - 1958

U.S. Israeli policy

British reactions to Iraqi revolution

General Kassim
Regional issues

State Department - Libya desk officer	1962-1965
Wheelus Air Base
Monarchy
King Idriss
Succession issue
Visit of Crown Prince
King and Crown Prince relations
Jewish population
British military mission in Libya
AID program versus oil revenues
Relations with Kuwait embassy
Fekini (ambassador and prime minister)
Mobile Oil interests
Tripoli embassy personnel
Baghdad, Iraq - Political Officer	1965-1967
Six Day War - 1967
Evacuation
Iraqi government
Communist Bloc relations
State Department - Tunisia Desk Officer	1967
Tunisian embassy expertise
President Bourguiba visit
Presidential gifts
Post-Retirement
“Africa Report” Magazine
DACOR
Author: Diplomatic Immunity: Principles, Practices, Problems	