

WALTER M. MCCLELLAND

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in Oklahoma City
University of Virginia and Harvard University
U.S. Navy during WWII
Entered Foreign Service in 1950
London, England - Visa officer	1950
Displaced Persons Program
Liverpool, England - Consular officer	1950-1952
London, England - Political officer	19520-1955
Embassy operations and duties
Cohn and Shine visit
State Department - Regional Affairs - SMR	1956-1959
NATO and European Economic Affairs
French attitudes
Dhahran, Saudi Arabia - Consul	1959-1962
Saudi environment and politics
ARAMCO
Buraimi Oasis Crisis
British influence in area
Dhahran Airfield
Saudi prohibition of alcohol
Bahrain's problems
Beirut, Lebanon - Arabic language training	1962-1964
Language and area studies
Baghdad, Iraq - Economic officer	1964-1967
Coup d'etat
Local problems of Embassy
Iraq government hostility
Soviet presence
Arab-Israeli war (1967)
Embassy evacuation
State Department - Iranian Desk - Economic and Political officer	1967-1970
Shah's economic and military policies

Kuwait - DCM	1970-1974
Ambassador Patrick Walsh
U.S. - Kuwait relations
Kuwait spending "projects"
Palestinian community
Oil and its problems
British presence
State Department - Foreign Service Inspection Corps	1974-1977
Operations
Felix Bloch case
Minorities in the Foreign Service
State Department - Executive Secretary - Board of the Foreign Service	1977-1978
Alexandria, Egypt - Consul General	1978-1981
Arab-Israel issue
U.S. AID program
U.S. Naval visits
President Anwar Sadat
Islamic fundamentalists
Mubarak
Egypt - Israel Peace Agreement
State Department - Executive Secretary - Board of the Foreign Service	1981-1984
Operations of the Board
Comments on life in the Foreign Service	