

JOHN J. MCLOY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Kennedy's Disarmament Commission proposal

- Johnson's lukewarm attitude
- Military testimony
- Little White House pressure

Relations with and views on Johnson

- Roosevelt's "White-haired boy"
- Cuban Affair - Johnson as observer
- Johnson appoints McCloy on Warren Commission
- Johnson and Warren Commission investigation
- Warren Commission's activities
- Johnson uses ambassadorship to Vietnam - 1964
- Johnson exerts pressure
- White House Vietnam meetings
- Johnson's approach
- Frequent consultation on German problem

McCloy and Tripartite Talks

- Johnson gives him free hand
- Goals of talks
- Political and financial aspect
- Johnson's congressional tactics
- Executive Branch support
- Adenauer funeral
- Dr. Erhard and "offset" issue

Johnson and other personalities

- General de Gaulle
- Kissinger

Vietnam years

- Effect on U.S.-European issues
- State's preoccupation with Vietnam

"Code words"

- "American Establishment"
- "Chairman of the Board"

Evaluation of Johnson presidency

- Various well-known personalities' views