

AMBASSADOR DONALD F. MCHENRY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Brookings Institution (on leaving from Department of State)	1971-1973
South Africa research
“Polaroid” Experiment
American owned corporations in South Africa
The Sullivan Principles
Pressure for dis-investment in South Africa
Mandela
US Policy
Resignation from the Department of State	1973
Reason for resignation
Carnegie Endowment for International Peace	1973-1976
President Tom Hughes
Humanitarian Policy Studies
Zimbabwe
Micronesia study
The Compact Program
Terrorism and hostage retrieval
Impact of studies
European Union Fellowship	1976
Guest Worker Program Problem
Advisor Committee for President Carter/Transition Team	1976-1977
Human rights
Korea withdrawal issue
Carter administration’s problems
Transition Team workings
White House vs. State Department
Campaigners into Government positions
Experience vs. ideologues
United States Deputy to the UN Security Council	1977-1979
Southern Africa
Andy Young
Human Rights
Soviet Union
Middle East
Zimbabwe
Namibia Resolution 435

Europeans
Brzezinski
European representatives
Contact Group
Working with the State Department
The French
Cubans in Angola

Secretary General's "Eminent Persons Group" Mission to Algeria
Algeria resistance to International Investigations
Group composition
Algeria's drastic political and economic changes
Economic and social problems

1998