

WILLIAM D. MILLER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

CIA: first government service
Transfer into USIA 1962
Discussion of problems and objectives of IAN during Miller's assignment there
Persuading field posts to set and operate by objectives
Greek and Turkish hostilities over Cyprus
India-Pakistan hostilities

Preserving Indian experiment in Democracy

PAO, India 1965-1970
Problems caused and successes achieved by great availability of surplus rupee funds
Media saturation in India
Themes and objectives stressed in India Programming
Development
Promotion of and guidance toward Democracy
Foreign Investment Climate
Cultural Center Operations curtailed by Indian Government because of Soviet violations
USIS effort – success in publicizing
AID program in India
Anti-American attitude among Indian Upper Classes
Problems trying to restrain nuclear proliferation in India
Indian resentment against U.S. efforts to suppress nuclear weapons capability

USIS publicizing of 1969 moon landing

Return to Washington:

Deputy Director, VOA 1970-1974
VOA difficulties in securing adequate funds from Congress
View of degree to which policy guidance (USIA and state) interferes with VOA broadcasting question: should VOA be a completely independent entity?

The PAO Japan experience 1974-1977
Japan's media saturation and sophistication

Require special USIS procedures to assure success

Evaluation of program techniques instigated by Al Carter in USIS programming

Flashback to certain technological innovations attempted in India

Back to discussion on Japan

Short assignment at Pentagon

Board of Examiners

1977-1979

Some additional recollections relating to VOA and an early experience with Ed Murrow