

MARYANN MINUTILLO

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Mrs. Minutillo, wife of USIA Public Affairs Officer Robert N. Minutillo, accompanied her husband on his assignments in the Washington, D.C. and abroad.

Background

Born in Massachusetts

Education

Emmanuel College, Boston, MA

Boston College

Clark University

Studies abroad

Profession

Director, Foreign Service Family Liaison Office (FLO)

Teacher of literacy (in Spanish)

Nutrition instructor

Faculty member, University of San Carlos

General Comments

Association of American Foreign Service Wives (AAFSW)

Family Liaison Office (FLO)

Relations with other organizations

Community Liaison Office(r) (CLO)

Islamabad Conference

Importance of CLO

Evolution of activities

Relations with Director General

Evacuees' problems

Funding

Foreign Service Institute (FSI)

Training

Work for spouses at foreign posts

Challenges in Foreign Service abroad

Security

Children's education allowance

Overseas Briefing Center (OBC)

Foreign Service Institute (FSI)

Posts of Assignment

Guatemala City, Guatemala, 1967-1970

Local theater participation

National Theater

San Pedro Sula, Honduras, 1970-1972

Rosario, Argentina, 1972-1974

La Paz, Bolivia, 1974-1976

Washington, DC, 1976-1979
Family Liaison Office

Manama, Bahrain 1979-1982

Asuncion, Paraguay, 1982-1985
Community Liaison Officer
Regional Training Conference

Washington, DC, 1985-1988
Overseas Briefing Center (OBC)
Community Skill Workshop
Cooperating with FSI
Community Liaison Officers (CLOs)
Training
Regional Conference
Office of Overseas Schools
Crisis Management Exercise
Bureau of Medical Services
Personal daily schedule
Family Liaison Office
Method of operations
Board of the Foreign Service
Relations with other State Department offices
Briefing inspectors
Relations with ambassadors
Qualifications
Two-income families
Extended family issues
American Family Members Association (AFMA)
Around the World in a Lifetime (AWAL)
Teenager questions and problems
Raising children abroad
Senator Rockefeller Proposal
Replacement of local employees by Americans at posts
Tandem couples
Employment of family members at post