

AMBASSADOR JAY P. MOFFAT

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Family Connection with Foreign Service
Harvard
Army Russian language training
Foreign Service Officer exam and training
Washington	1956-1958
Bureau of Intelligence and Research (INR)
Biographic information work
Assistant to INR Director
Impressions of INR
Vice Consul of Kobe-Osaka, Japan	1958-1960
Economic changes in Japan
Relations with Embassy
Popular unrest
Mismanagement of Consulate
Paris	1960-1965
Aide to Ambassador (1960-1961)
Political Officer (1961-1965)
Ambassador Gavin
Relations with French
French anti-American propaganda
President Kennedy's visit
Vietnamese in Paris
French recognition of Communist China
French reaction to Vietnam War
Decolonization of Africa
Ambassador Bohlen
Embassy support from Washington
Washington	1965-1968
Benelux Desk Officer
Nature of work
Staff assistant to Secretary Rusk and Secretary Rogers
Transition between Johnson and Nixon administrations
Political Officer in Bern, Switzerland	1968-1970
Impressions of Ambassador Davis
American interest in Switzerland
Nature of post

DCM in Trinidad	1971-1974
American interests in Trinidad
Differences in ambassadors
Relations with leaders of Trinidad
American business interests in Trinidad
Washington	1974-1976
Deputy Assistant Secretary
Kissinger as Secretary of State
Kissinger as administrator
DCM in Morocco	1976-1982
Situation in Morocco in 1976
Western Sahara dispute
The Polisario insurgent group
American military aid to Morocco
Dispute with U.S over military aid
Embassy view of Polisarios
Impressions of King Hassan
Press leaks
Human rights in Morocco
Communication with Moroccan government
Ambassador Robert Anderson
Drug problem in Morocco
Temporary assignment as Charge in Gambia and Lesotho
Ambassador to Chad	1983-1985
Situation in Chad in 1982
U.S presence in Chad
Civil War
Sudden change in U.S position
Libyan intervention
U.S military aid
Impressions of Hissein Habre
American interests in Chad
Aouzou strip dispute
AID mission in Chad
Living conditions in Chad
Support from Washington
Conclusion
National War College
Variety of posts
A career in the Foreign Service	