

MARK E. MOHR

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born in New York, raised in New York and New Jersey
University of Rochester, Harvard University (China studies)
South Korea: Peace Corps; English language instructor	1967-1969
Koreans attributes
Difference from Japanese
Environment
Training program
Entered the Foreign Service	1969
Vietnam protests
A-100 Course
State Department: Operations Center	1969
State Department: Desk Officer, South Africa	1969-1970
Replying to incoming mail
US South Africa policy
Taipei, Taiwan: Non-Immigrant Visa Officer	1971-1973
Work volume
President Chang Kai-shek
Taiwan ejected from UN
Environment
Family
Taichung, Taiwan: Chinese language studies	1973-1974
Hong Kong: Political Officer	1974-1977
End of China's Cultural Revolution
Weekly events in China
China Watching
Information sources
Chinese refugees
British
US Liaison Office (USLO) in China
Mao's death
Deng Xiaoping
Sino-Soviet split
Lin Biao

Gang of Four vs. Zhou En-lai faction China aid to Africa Other China watchers Sino-Vietnamese War (1979)
Tokyo, Japan: Political Officer; External section Ambassador Mike Mansfield Chrysanthemum club Area reporting responsibilities Japan-China character differences Family	1977-1980
State Department: Director, Office of Pacific Island Affairs, East Asia and Pacific Bureau (EAP) Micronesia Congressional interest	1980-1981
State Department: Deputy Director, Office of Taiwan Affairs US-China Taiwan arms sales negotiations Diplomatic relations with China American Institute in Taiwan (AIT) US-China normalization US-Taiwan relations Secretary of State Haig Human Events article Limiting arms sale to Taiwan FX fighter plans for Taiwan	1981-1983
Congressional Fellowship; Office of Senator John Glenn Senator John Glenn Senators' views of themselves	1983
State Department: Deputy Director, Office of Regional Affairs, East Asia Bureau	1983-1984
University of Maryland: Study Fellowship Course of study	1984-1985
State Department: Intermediate Nuclear Forces Officer, Bureau of Political/Military Affairs Weapons basing countries US and Soviet inventories World wide protests Negotiations for missile reduction US agencies involved in negotiations Richard Pearle European views	1985-1988

Nancy Reagan involvement “Reclama” Memos US internal agreement problems Reagan and Gorbachev sign treaty Treaty ratification
Beijing, China: Deputy Director, Political Section Tiananmen Square Ambassador Winston Lord Relations President Bush visit Fang Lizhi China leadership split China leaders Student protests Gorbachev’s Beijing visit Mao’s popularity swing Government reaction to Tiananmen Beijing “closed down” Government suspicions of US involvement “Why did government shoot students?” Scowcroft visit Comments on Chinese and China studies Communist ideology gone Marxism in China Environment Surveillance Embassy local employees Information sources Reporting China’s foreign policy American media Congressional visits Chinese students to US Partial Embassy evacuation Communist Party	1988-1990
State Department: Deputy Director, China Affairs Chinese nationals in Beijing Embassy Most Favored Nation (MFN) battle Congressional interest in MFN Relations China/Taiwan visitors agreement President Bush’s interest in China Family	1990-1992
Brisbane, Australia: Consul	1992-1995

Environment
Relations
Staff
Reporting
WWII remembered
American commercial presence
Consulate closing
Ambassador Ed Perkins
Operations
The Pentagon: Office of Foreign Military Rights	1995-1996
Status of Forces Agreements (SOFs)
Retirement	1996-1997
Consultant Company with Tai Kuo
Lectures to Chinese groups
Advising Chinese on their Image in US
Guanghou group
State Department: North Korea Desk Officer, WAE (when actually employed)	1997-1999
North Korean diplomatic style
US Policy
Light Water Nuclear Power Reactors (LWRs)
Agreed Framework Agreement (AF)
Disputes over agreement fulfillment
Korean Peninsula Economic Development Organization (KEDO)
Lack of US funding
Department of Energy:	1999-2005
North Koreans accused of cheating on AF
Disputes with North Koreans escalate
N. Korea becoming nuclear weapons state
Kim Jong II
Seminars to reduce tensions In Northeast Asia
Woodrow Wilson Center: Seminar Organizer (Northeast Asia)	2005-2008
China, Japan and Korea scholars
Pyongyang
Comments on North Korea
Retirement	2008
Teaching and study	