

AMBASSADOR WALTER F. MONDALE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Overseas Visits as United States Senator from Minnesota
Vietnam
NATO Conference in Brussels, Belgium
Importance of Foreign Travel for Members of Congress
Vietnam War – as United States Senator from Minnesota	1964
Influence of news reporting
Vietnamese views
Vice President Walter F. Mondale and Foreign Affairs
President’s representative in Foreign Affairs matters
Foreign travel
German nuclear reprocessing technology issue
President Carter’s foreign policy views
Public support necessary
Normalization of relations with China
Preparing for China mission
China Mission successes
Taiwan lobby reaction
China’s “Cultural Revolution”
U.S. Iran policy
Shah’s health
US Embassy hostages
“Nightline” program influence
Use of military power
Mutual respect in international relations
President Carter and Human Rights
“Because we are free, we must fight for freedom everywhere”
Foregoing “good politics”
Working Relationship with President Carter
South Africa
United States Ambassador to Japan	1993-1996
Vetting and confirmation process
Preparation for mission
Embassy staff
American Military
Agencies represented
Relations

Trade

US presence in Okinawa

Status of Forces Agreement

North Korea

Ex-President Carter visit to North Korea

Kim Il Sung

Importance of access to President and high US officials

Senkaku Islands

Embassy budget problems

USIA role

Consulates

Personnel assignments

Importance of foreign language proficiency

Importance of mutual respect

Method of operation

Addendum

Biographic Sketch