

CONSUL GENERAL WILLIAM D. MORGAN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Cone system
Consular functions
Administrative function
Chief, Consular Section, Beirut, Lebanon	1968-1973
DCM's role as "Consular General"
Principal task as Chief of Consular Section
American community
Relations with rest of embassy staff
Junior officers
Establishing contact within Consular Section
Dealing with Foreign Service Nationals
Dealing with the public
Rebuilding Consular Section and increasing efficiency
American Community School and relations with American community
Registering with the embassy
Drug smuggling and helping Americans in prison
U.S. Major arrested in Syria
Human aspect of consular work
First Consular Officer, Inspection Corps	1975-1976
Inspecting Mexican post
"Selling" consular work
Deputy Director, Visa Office	1976-1978
Duties and functions
Dealing with junior officers in field
Congressional letters
Congressional pressure
Consul General, Paris	1978-1981
Comparison to Lebanon
Responsibilities
Consul General, Montreal, Canada	1981-1985
Training for increased responsibilities
Adjusting to political and economic reporting
Conclusion	