

ANN MILLER MORIN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- Born in Massachusetts
- University of New Hampshire
- University of Maryland
- Married Laurent Emile Morin, 1943
- Andrew Wyeth relationship

Conference on “Women in the Eisenhower Period”

- Ambassador Jean Wilkowski
- Women Ambassadors
- Ambassador Shirley Temple Black

Authoring book on Women Ambassadors

- Origins of idea
- Seeking financing
- Association for Diplomatic Studies and Training (ADST)
- Oral histories of Women Ambassadors
- “Women in Federal Government”
- Financial grant of Ann Cox Chambers
- Interviewing subjects
- Biography Group (National Portrait Gallery)
- Spouses of several women ambassadors
- Spouses of Deputy Chiefs of Mission (DCMs)

Personal experience

- Teaching at foreign posts (US Army schools)
- Costs of schooling at foreign posts
- Masters degree in education
- Thesis: “The Academic Progress and Social Development of Foreign Service Children”
- Unhappy spouses
- Improvements in housing, allowances and services
- Post-war reactions

Early Career of husband, Laurent Emile Lorin

- US Navy
- Joined the Foreign Service in 1948
- Foreign Service exams

Algiers, Algeria

- Volunteering

1948-1951

Resentment of “Two for the price of one” concept
Sea voyage
Jealousies and friction
Housing
Environment
Attempt on life of Boumedienne
Le Havre, France	1951-1952
Paris, France	1952-1954
Environment
Kobe, Japan	1954-1956
Housing
Schooling
Environment
Yale University: Advanced studies
Baghdad, Iraq	1960-1964
Military coups
Wild dogs
Iraqi military requisitions school
Embassy bombed and strafed
Antiquities hunting
Raising family
Children’s illnesses
Qassim’s manifesto
Iraqi history
Administration Section
Washington, D.C.	1964-1968
Director of Admissions, International Center for Language Studies
Algiers, Algeria	1968-1970
Broken diplomatic relations
Anti-American environment
Pan-African Conference
Stokely Carmichael and Eldridge Cleaver
Evacuation from US of Algeria’s UN Ambassador
Washington, D.C.	1974-1977
Part owner of Travel Agency	