

AMBASSADOR ALFRED H. MOSES

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born and raised in Baltimore, Maryland
Dartmouth College; Princeton University, Georgetown University Law
US Navy

Washington, D.C., Lawyer, Covington and Burling 1956-1980

Marriage
Tax-work Specialties
Indigent cases
Washington law firms and representation
International airline routes
Partners
Legal Aid work
Minorities
President Kennedy
Robert Kennedy
Civil Rights
Middle East Affairs
American Jewish Committee
Anti-“Arab boycott of Israel” legislation
President Nixon
Henry Kissinger
Israel-Arab conflicts
Israel and US policy
Arafat
American-Israeli Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC)
President Ford
Romanian Jews
Camp David Accords
President Carter
Anwar Sadat’s funeral
Arab-Israeli War of 1967
Israeli illegal settlements
Romanian Affairs
American Jewish Committee
Romania’s Ceausescu
Romanian Jews
Most Favored Nation (MFN) legislation

Special Counsel to President Carter 1980-1981 “Billygate” Hearings

Security leak
Personnel
Billy Carter and Qadhafi
Congressional Democrats and President Carter
Carter's views and policies
Carter's "Malaise" speech
Carter's "Team"
Jewish vote
Status of Jerusalem
VP Mondale's Jerusalem visit
Jewish settlements
Andy Young and Arafat
Jewish leaders
Iran hostage crisis
Carter/Congress relations
Brzezinski
Hal Saunders
Egyptian-Israeli Peace Treaty
Carter and Jewish Community
Carter's election defeat

Return to Covington and Burling 1981-1994

Visits to Romania
Ambassador Funderburk
Israeli invasion of Lebanon
Secretary of State Schultz
Bucharest's Great Synagogue
Arms for Israel issue
Relations with Bush White House
Soviet Jews in Israel
Meetings with Israeli leaders
President Clinton

Ambassador to Romania 1994-1997

US Romania relations
Congressional visits
President Clinton's visit
Political Parties
Treaties
US commercial presence
NATO
Jewish question

Special Presidential Envoy for the Cyprus Conflict 1997-2000

Personalities involved
Meetings with Greeks and Turks

American Greek community
Issues
“Clinton Proposal”
Turkey’s EU application

Vice Chairman and Chief Operating Officer; Promontory Financial Group (PFG)

National Board at Hebrew College, Newton, MA; Chairman