

AMBASSADOR EDWARD W. MULCAHY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Interest in Foreign Service
World War II and military experience
Mombasa, Kenya	1947-1949
Post reports
Kenya's resources
Munich, West Germany	1949-1950
Working conditions
Addis Ababa, Ethiopia	1950-1952
Climate and political history
Cultural divisions
U.S. policy toward Eritreans
Political factions
Washington, D.C.	1952-1956
Sending Foreign Service undesirables to Africa
Moving toward decolonization
Athens, Greece	1956-1959
Southern Rhodesia	1959-1962
Forming a federation government
Emerging African political leaders
Washington, D.C.	1962-1967
Bureau of African Affairs
Jack and Bobby Kennedy
Belgians in Africa
Soapy Williams and Joseph Palmer
Tunisia	1967-1970
Ambassador Francis Russel
Lagos, Nigeria	1970-1972
Political situation following Biafran War
American involvement in Nigeria
Chad	1972-1974

Famine in Chad
Embassy staff, U.S. military, Peace Corps
Chad's relations with France and Libya
Relationship with Chad's president

Washington, DC 1974-1976
African Affairs
Kissinger's attitude toward Africa
U.S. involvement in Angola crisis

Tunisia 1976-1979
President Bourguiba
Tunisia's relations with Libya
General Ben Ali

Conclusion
Ambassador in Residence, Atlanta University
Implementing AID programs
Haile Selassie's reception
Foreign Service as a career