

CHARLES NAAS & HENRY PRECHT

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Iran	1978-1979
Economic and political dichotomy
U.S. intelligence gaps and rising fundamentalism
Iranian attacks on U.S. personnel
The crumbling of the Shah's power
The Carter administration's policies
Communications breakdown between State and post
Role of the press
Recommendation to keep the Shah out of the U.S.
Inadequacies of U.S. reporters
Importance of maintaining relations with Iran	