

DAVID G. NES

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|                                  |            |
|----------------------------------|------------|
| Background                       |            |
| Pennsylvania                     |            |
| Princeton University             |            |
| U.S. Army, World War II          |            |
| Glasgow, Scotland                | 1946 -1948 |
| Executive Secretariat            |            |
| Trieste Task Force               |            |
| Clair Booth Luce                 |            |
| Tripoli, Libya                   | 1954-1956  |
| DCM                              |            |
| Wheelus Field base negotiations  |            |
| Oil discoveries                  |            |
| Egyptian influences              |            |
| Department of State              | 1956-1959  |
| Korean Affairs                   |            |
| African Bureau, military advisor |            |
| Rabat, Morocco                   | 1959-1963  |
| King Muhammad V                  |            |
| King Hassan II                   |            |
| Earthquake at Agadir             |            |
| U.S. military facilities         |            |
| French influence                 |            |
| Algerian issues                  |            |
| London, England                  | 1963-1964  |
| Imperial Defense College         |            |
| Saigon, Vietnam                  | 1964-1965  |
| DCM                              |            |
| Ambassador Cabot Lodge           |            |
| Local situation                  |            |
| General Westmoreland             |            |
| U.S. build-up of forces          |            |
| Cairo, Egypt                     | 1965-1967  |
| DCM                              |            |

Ambassador Lucius Battle
Yemen Problem
President Nasser and U.S. relations
U.S. PL-480 program
Leading up to 1967 June War
Ambassador Nolte designate
President Johnson letter to Nasser
War clouds
Muheddin mission to Washington
Nasser "no strike" pledge
Radio Cairo reports Egyptian victories
Alexandria consulate attacked
U.S. mission closed
Evacuation
U.S.S. Liberty attacked
Nasser reigns
SS Carina evacuates Americans
Lessons learned

General Comments

Ambassador David Bruce
Vernon Walters