

DAVID NES

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Pre-Vietnam Assignment	1963-1964
Imperial Defense College, London
British and French intelligence reports
McNamara visit to Vietnam
Vietnam Assignment, Deputy Chief of Mission	1964-1965
First Impressions
Mission and American community make good
Disagreement over counterinsurgency
CIA views
U.S. military views
Ambassador Lodge working habits
China and Soviet Union perceived involvement
Success unlikely
Vietnam Assignment - Later Developments	1964-1965
Disagreement with U.S. military policies
North Vietnam involvement in the South
External factions
French (de Gaulle) role
Evacuation of U.S. dependents issue
Clandestine operations (34-A)
Relations with the Press
Ambassador Lodge and the Press
Replacement By U. Alexis Johnson	1965
Lodge unhappiness with Nes administration views
General Westmoreland
General Maxwell replaces Lodge
Washington views of Nes
Return to Washington	1965
Senator Fulbright
Offers of Ambassadorships
Reflections on U.S.-Vietnam Involvement
Neutralization of China support for North Vietnam
Negotiate or occupy North Vietnam
CIA options
Pre-Egypt (UAR) Assignment	1965

Muslim world
U.S. Relations with UAS
Egypt and its neighbors
Nasser's views and objectives

Egypt (UAR) Assignment - DCM 1965-1967
Ambassador Lucius Battle
U.S. pressure via U.S. assistance
PL 480
NSC paper on U.S. policy
U.S. Congress views on Nasser aid
Egypt's requests denied
Egypt's difficulties with Saudi Arabia and Yemen
Nasser's popularity as leader
Anwar Sadat
Miles Copeland's thesis on Nasser
U.S. administration's lack of attention to Egypt
Soviet position in Egypt
Egyptian views of Russians
Nasser's views of LBJ
Mohamed Heikal's The Cairo Papers
"Nazis" in Egypt?
Palestinian influence on Nasser
Syria and the UAR
Nasser's view of Israel
Harriman's Cairo visit (re. Vietnam issue)
Saudi Arabia and Yemen
U.S.-Yemen flap
Nasser's Yemen fiasco
Unfolding Israel (1967) crisis
Russian rumors between Israel and Syria
Nasser's receptivity of rumors
U.S. attempt to avert war
Nasser responds to peace efforts
Israel reacts to Nasser moves
Gulf of Aqaba issue
Embassy dependants evacuate Egypt
U Thant removes UN forces (MNEF) from Sharm el Sheikh
Abba Eban visit to Washington
Robert Anderson's Cairo visit
Nasser assumes U.S. and U.K. involvement in air attack
Egypt breaks diplomatic relations
CIA and The Invisible Government
Spain represents U.S. interests
Liberty bombing
U.S.S. Saratoga mission

Egypt wants CIA and U.S. Oil to remain
Nasser retains popularity

Comments on Egypt's Future

1968

Nasser strengths remain
Soviets will rebuild Egypt's army
Soviet position strengthened
Arab-Israel settlement impossible
UN resolution 242 - semantic problem
Palestinian future
Sadat and 1973 war
Israel-Egypt peace treaty
Israel and U.S.
Congressional views of Middle East