

G. CLAY NETTLES

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
University of Alabama
U.S. Army - 1954-1956
Entered Foreign Service - 1957
State Department - Bureau of Security	1957-1960
Tokyo, Japan - Claims Commission	1960
Lionel Summers - Supervising Consul General
U.S. property claims against Japan
Yokohama, Japan - Rotational Officer	1960-1963
Shipping and seamen
Duties
Mr. Yamada and Alexis Johnson
Caracas, Venezuela - Economic/Commercial Officer	1963-1964
Duties
Security problems
Terrorists
State Department - Foreign Service Institute	1964-1965
Vietnamese Language Studies
Fort Bragg, training
Rigorous, instructive
AID involvement
Vietnam - AID - II Corps	1965-1967
Viet Cong activities
Lam Dung Province
AID program
MACV program
Local attitude
Viet Cong demolish residence
Staff
MILSAP team
Saigon relationship
CORDS program
State Department - Economic Training	1967

State Department - Latin America Bureau	1968
Harvard University - Economic Training	1969-1970
Beirut, Lebanon - Petroleum Officer Jordan's "Black September" Palestinians Environment Travels Temporary duty in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia Tapline	1970-1972
Islamabad, Pakistan - Financial/Economic Officer Overland journey John and Norman Pratt Environment Economic situation Kashmir U.S. commercial interests AID	1972-1975
Kinshasa, Zaire - Economic Counselor Mobutu Environment Deteriorating economy Ambassador Dean Hinton "persona non grata" U.S. aid Angola U.S. commercial interests Morrison and Knudson power project Corruption	1975-1978
Rome, Italy - NATO Defense College Observations	1978-1979
Ankara, Turkey - Economic Counselor Economic conditions OECD and U.S. assistance Turgut Ozal Military role Security Military intervention Environment Turkish economy European connection Greece-Turkey relations	1979-1982

Turkey's relations with neighbors

Suriname - Temporary Duty - Deputy Chief of Mission	1982
State Department - Economic Bureau Chief, Office of Marine and Polar Minerals	1982-1985
Ankara, Turkey - Economic Counselor Motherland Party Turgut Ozal Economy World Bank and IMF Kurdish situation Armenian Liberation Army Istanbul consulate U.S. economic aid Exports Cyprus Environment Turkish military Turkey and NATO U.S. military assistance Language capability Political parties U.S. ambassadors to Turkey	1985-1990
Geneva, Switzerland - Economic Counselor UNCTAD ECOSOC Unrealistic expectations Senator Gore visit	1990-1993