

AMBASSADOR HERMAN W. NICKEL

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Johannesburg, South Africa base; foreign correspondent	1961-1962
From colonial rule to independence
Nelson Mandela (a.k.a the Black Pimpernel)
Expelled from S. Africa
Articles for Fortune Magazine; American “disinvestment”	1978
White majority devotion to apartheid
Fears of racial holocaust
Call for repeal of apartheid features
Congress of South African Trade Unions
Moral pressure against apartheid
Interview with Mandela
View of “elites”
Possibility of negotiated settlement
Ambassador to South Africa	1982-1986
NAACP Legal Defense Fund
Reception
Reagan views and policy
Pat Buchanan “interference”
Cubans in Angola
Collapse of Soviet Union
African National Congress
Policy of Constructive Engagement
Security forces
Israelis
Congress overrides Reagan’s veto of sanctions
State of Emergency
South African media
Process of power transfer
Township rebellion
Arch Bishop Desmond Tutu
Gatsha Buthelezi
Small-help programs
NGOs
P.W. Botha
Views on sanctions
Comprehensive Anti-Apartheid Act
British policy
American companies
Congressional pressures
Senator Kennedy’s visit

Embassy officers
Zulus
Black trade unions
De Klerk
Media
Dutch Reform Church
Attaches
Nkomati Accord
Nuclear issue
Asians
Chet Crocker