

AMBASSADOR CLINTON L. OLSON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in South Dakota and California
Stanford University
U.S. Army WWII
Moscow, USSR	1941-1943
Deputy Chief of Joint U.S.-U.K. Supply Program for USSR (General Faymonville)
Stalin
German offensive on Moscow
Evacuation to East
General Faymonville
Joe Davies
Murmansk Duty
Teheran, Iran - OSS	1944-1945
Supply line to USSR
Economic Intelligence duties
USSR Activities
Private Business	1945-1947
Vienna, Austria - economic officer	1948-1952
Political officer to Military High Commissioner
Environment of Vienna
State Department	1952
Robert Kennedy proposition
McCarthy Committee
Port au France, Martinique - Consul	1952-1955
Communist Party
State Department - Office of Budget	1955-1956
State Department - Executive Director of Latin American Affairs	1956-1959
Escort to congressional delegation to Ireland
Congressman John Rooney
National War College	1959-1960

London, England - administrative counselor New embassy building - eagle controversy	1960-1962
Vienna, Austria - Consul General Austria after Peace Treaty U.S. interests Espionage	1962-1966
Lagos, Nigeria - supervising Consul General Biafran War - origins Ibos U.S. policy Insubordination of consuls Peace Corps problems Relations with Nigerians General Gowan State Department interference Secretary Rogers Ambassador Trueheart Henry Kissinger	1966-1970
Vladivostok during WWII Secret and forbidden by Soviets Port inspection report Angus Ward, Consul General Soviet surveillance R.R. trip to Vladivostok Ludmilla Parlachmko's amorous attempts Tunnel espionage Averill Harriman	1943
State Department Inspection Corps Operations Ambassador Vincent de Roulet (Jamaica) Saigon inspection	1971-1972
Sierra Leone - Ambassador Confirmation difficulties Arab-Israeli dispute	1972-1974