

AMBASSADOR MARY SEYMOUR OLMSTED

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Early years in Florida

Education

Mount Holyoke College

Columbia University

Professional Life

Central Hanover Bank, NYC

Nat. Bureau of Economic Research

Foreign Service

Basic training

Montreal

Junior economic analyst

FSO examination

Amsterdam

Commercial officer

Junior officer rotation

Reykjavik

Political officer

Vienna

Economic officer

Impact of Sen. McCarthy

Stateside Assignments

Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy

INR

Dept. of Commerce

EA

Senior Seminar

NEA

OEO

Board of Examiners

Deputy Director of personnel management

New Delhi

Economic officer

Living conditions

Women's Movement in Department

- First interest while in OEO
- Genesis of women's movement in Department of State
- WAO
- Christian Herter award for work with women
- Congresswomen's caucus on Women in State
- Task Force – National Women's Political Caucus
- Loss of ground during Reagan administration
- Future of women in Foreign Service

Port Moresby

- Consul general
- Opening post
- Inclusion of Solomon Islands
- Domestic arrangements
- Independence
- Appointment as ambassador
- Establishment of embassy

Papua New Guinea

- Government
- People
- Native art
- Native ceremony
- Squatters, crime
- American missionaries
- Impact of WWII
- Business and investment

A day in the life of an ambassador

- Staff at residence
- Official entertaining
- Fourth of July celebration

Post organization and operations

- Staff support in UN
- Bougainville secessionist movement
- Fisheries problem
- Consular matters
- Administrative section
- Cultural activities
- Decision not to give aid
- Inspectors

Women as diplomats

Her appointment impetus to local women
Advantages to being a woman
Qualifications of women
Advice to young women
Disadvantages to being a woman
Concentration of women in consular jobs

Post Retirement

Activities
Views on personnel matters, proliferation of embassies
US, NSC
Generalists v. specialists
Advanced training
Preparation for Foreign Service